

PEOPLE WILL KEEP ACCEPTING STREET HARASSMENT AS "THE WAY IT IS" INSTEAD OF SOMETHING THAT SHOULD, AND CAN, BE STOPPED.

BLAME GETS SHIFTED ON TO THE PERSON WHO WAS WALKING ALONE AT NIGHT OR WEARING A SHORT SKIRT, BECAUSE, "YOU SHOULD KNOW, IF YOU GO OUTSIDE DRESSED LIKE THAT, YOU'RE GONNA GET HARASSED. YOU'RE GONNA GET GROPED. YOU'RE ASKING FOR IT."

IF WE DON'T CHALLENGE THAT WAY OF THINKING, IT'S LIKE WE'RE FORGETTING THE HARASSEER'S ROLE ALTOGETHER, GIVING THEM PERMISSION TO DO WHATEVER THEY WANT, AND THEN AGREEING TO ACCEPT THE BLAME!

EXACTLY, YOUNG GRASSHOPPER.

WELL, IF NOTHING ELSE, SOME JERK GRABBING YOUR BUTT HAS HELPED YOU TO INSPIRE ME!

I DO WHAT I CAN.

HEY, WHAT ABOUT YOUR BOY? WHAT'D HE HAVE TO SAY ABOUT THE WHOLE THING?

I DON'T KNOW IF HE UNDERSTOOD WHAT THE BIG DEAL WAS. BUT HE AGREED IT WAS WRONG AND DIDN'T TELL ME I WAS BEING EMOTIONAL OR PARANOID SO THAT'S AN A+ FOR HIM.

TALK TO HIM AGAIN. LET HIM KNOW WHY THIS IS IMPORTANT.

IT CAN'T JUST BE WOMEN STANDING UP FOR WOMEN OUT THERE. MEN NEED TO STEP IN AND STAND UP, TOO.

THEY GOTTA HOLD THEMSELVES ACCOUNTABLE OR ELSE NOTHING IS GONNA CHANGE.

ONE WAY
